

DE'ANDRE SALTER

PASTOR, SCHOLAR, ENTREPRENEUR, AUTHOR

De'Andre Salter is a dynamic visionary who possesses an insightful awareness of what people need to be empowered for spiritual and natural success. As Senior Pastor of The Tabernacle Church in South Plainfield, NJ, and the CEO of Professional Risk Solutions and other business ventures, he models how believers can use all of their abilities to prosper and expand the Kingdom of God. Under his leadership, The Tabernacle Church has grown very quickly. At the same time, his business has become one of the largest specialty insurance brokerages in the country, claiming some of the country's most influential personalities and firms as clients.

It is this duality, that has allowed Pastor D, as he is affectionately known at The Tabernacle Church, to serve faithfully in ministry without a salary. Pastor D's accomplishments in ministry and business have been profiled on FOX, CBS, ABC, NBC, UPN, and featured in Black Enterprise, The Wall Street Journal, The Star-Ledger, Courier News, NJ Biz and many other publications. In June of 2005, his success was celebrated when he was recognized by The Network Journal as one of the top 40 Black Executives in America. He also received a special commendation from the Governor of New Jersey in 2009 for creating an innovative social enterprise venture with the church's CDC.

Pastor D has earned a Masters degree in Biblical Studies from the King Seminary, associate certificates from Oxford University and is working to complete his Ph.D. Pastor D is married to his childhood sweetheart, novelist, Terri Jones Salter.
